

LFTL Councilmen

Providing God's Word with a monthly gift.

"I've got a house church with seven new converts with no Bibles. Have you any Bibles?"

"I have been listening to your (LFTL funded radio) programs for six months. I used to be a leader in Jihad, but this government doesn't care about me."

"This Hindu family was changed by a simple gift, a tract, which showed them the greatest gift, Christ's love and salvation."

"THANKS TO LFTL, MY LIFE IS CHANGED FOR ETERNITY."

"We couldn't print our materials without your partnership!"

"With a limited number of Bible resources in the Romanian language, the illustrated Children's Bible is a cherished book that whole families will read together."

"Do you have one of these books in my language?"

"Light for the Lost is making a real difference by helping alcoholics and drug addicts learn about Christ!"

AIR MAIL

"I want to thank you for the Bibles. We had so many people come to our service that there was hardly enough room!"

Throughout the history of Light for the Lost, monthly contributors have become known as Councilmen. These are individuals who make up our core support team, pursuing present opportunities for involvement in missions. Consistent contributions from thousands of men across the nation assist in providing essential evangelistic resources. As a faithful contributor, your involvement is key to the continuing success of LFTL.

Will you consider a monthly gift so that people all over the world can know about Christ for the very first time?
