

Light for the Lost provided resources are used solely for the presentation of Scripture or the gospel message.

Such resources include but are not limited to:

- Salvation-type tracts for general distribution
- Immediate post-salvation follow up materials
- Media designed for the purpose of evangelism
- Bibles and Scripture portions for evangelism and/or new converts

The following personnel are eligible for Light for the Lost assistance:

1. Nationally Appointed AGWM Missionaries: Nationally appointed missionaries and ministries in good standing with Assemblies of God World Missions are eligible to receive Light for the Lost assistance.
~ Apply through AGPassport or Area Director
2. Nationally Appointed AGUSM Missionaries: Nationally appointed missionaries and ministries in good standing with Assemblies of God US Missions are eligible to receive Light for the Lost assistance.
~ US Missions Application can be found on LFTL.ag.org/resources or usmissions.ag.org/finances
3. District Projects: District appointed missionaries and district endorsed evangelism-specific events are eligible to receive Light for the Lost assistance. Local churches requesting Light for the Lost assistance must be regular contributors to Light for the Lost.
~Special Project application can be found on LFTL.ag.org/resources

Eligibility for Light for the Lost assistance does not guarantee receipt of funds. Assistance depends upon the ability of the districts to raise the necessary funds.
